

NEWS RELEASE - Toronto Coin Expo - Sept 28, 2013

Is Your Coin Fake? - Canadian Counterfeit Coins, A Reality

Since money was first invented it has been counterfeited. The Toronto Coin Expo and the Canadian Association for Numismatic Education is pleased to announce a free educational seminar for all show attendees, in the hope that they will be better able to spot a counterfeit Canadian coins and prevent themselves and others from being defrauded.

On Saturday October 5, 2013, join Canada's foremost expert and 4-time award winning counterfeit opponent Mike Marshall. Mike has had success on numerous fronts combating the influx of counterfeit coins into Canada, and has aided the RCMP, eBay and many other organizations to combat against counterfeit Canadian coins. The topics will include the law as interpreted by the RCMP, contemporary counterfeits of common coins, as well and most importantly the modern counterfeits which are designed to act as replica coins but are often used to represent the real thing.

Mr. Mat St. Marie, Country Product Manager of eBay Canada, will also be on hand to brief the attendees as to eBay policy and the handling of counterfeit Canadian coin auctions on the popular website. This hands-on seminar will show how deceptive these coins and bullion products are, and this will be the first time in Canada they will be shown to the public for what they are - counterfeits.

The seminar is held in conjunction with the Toronto Coin Expo, Canada's Coin & Bank Note Show, at 789 Yonge Street at the Toronto Reference Library on Saturday, October 5, 2013 at 2pm. For more information visit www.torontocoinexpo.ca.

Sept 28, 2013 – By Jared Stapleton – torontocoinexpo@gmail.com